I. Manual

Charmin is a perfume selling website that uses java web severlet technology, along with several APIs to integrate the purchasing experience for users.

Login can be found in the upper right corner of the screen or in some pages like the shopping cart you can click on the links to the login page.
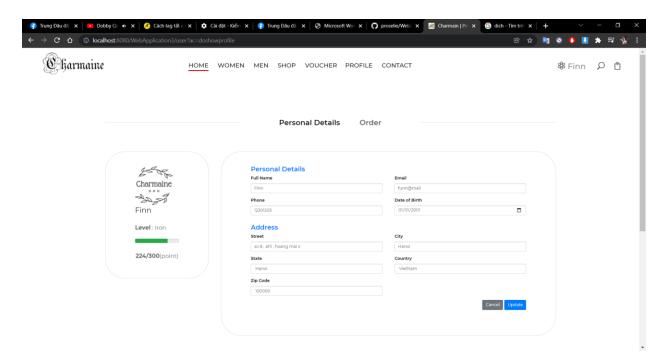

The login page can be filled in with your account and password to log in, you can log in via google gmail.

The default account for user is

Username: User001

Password: user

From this login page can be used to login to the admin page.

Default admin account is :

Username: admin1

Password: admin

 With staff account will be less function to manage

Default account for staff :

Username: staff1

Password: staff